4:35 p.m. (4:50 p.m.) Round I Workshops

Presidents – WHO can we HEAR?

Brenna Bays

Similar to Horton, we as Presidents may encounter bumps on our journey to help others. During this workshop, we will gain effective listening skills to be able to hear those around us and discover ways to make sure that everyone is being heard. Our story as Chapter Presidents is just beginning, so together we will make sure we are on the right track to living to serve.

Remember – Chapter Presidents will stay in the same workshop room for both Rounds I and II

Vice Presidents – It’s Up to You to be Thing 2!

Ashley Zimmerman

Learn about your responsibilities as Vice President of your officer team and why it is up to Thing 2! Learn how to use your Program of Activities to make your chapter successful and get a sneak peek on the changes of the Program of Activities! In this workshop we will set goals for our year as Thing 2 and learn how to balance them with our other responsibilities!

Secretary in the Hat, Write a Lot About That!

Laura Munger

What is the next item of business and the ability to be demonstrated? In this workshop, we will work together to discover the skills and responsibilities that a secretary has. We will focus on goals for the upcoming year to help make the most of our time as a Secretary! We will also put our skills to the test while we write thank yous to an influential person.

Treasurers – One Cent, Two Cent. Old Cent, New Cent.

Rylee Black

Get ready to get silly and make it rain in your home chapter as we explore the steps of raising money and budgeting expenses. Treasurers play an important role in their chapters, so we will search for new ways to serve our members.

Reporters – Reporting Live from Blue-Ville

Hannah Taylor

Capturing awesome photos, showcasing chapters on social media and duties of our position are all things we will explore together as FFA reporters. Receive your press pass and begin your journey reporting live from Blue-Ville

Sentinels – The Big-Hearted Officer

Travis Cadman

This workshop will help Sentinels learn how to care for a meeting, assist the president in maintaining order, and most of all how to care for our fellow teammates and our chapter members.

Parliamentarians – Order in the Room, Let the Fun Resume!

Kari Fischer

“Unless a parliamentarian like you knows a whole awful lot, nothing is going to run right. It’s not.” We move to have all parliamentarians attend this workshop to learn more about their duties and parliamentary procedure. Students will learn how to keep order in the room so that their FFA chapters can thrive.

Other Officers and Committee Chairs – The Cat in Corduroy

Dani Angotti

In this exciting workshop, we will learn about how to have a successful officer team. We will learn about teamwork, dependability, and more. I can’t wait to see you there.

Middle School – Mr. Green Can Lead! Can You?

Caleb Green

In this workshop, middle school members will learn about all of the opportunities they have now and in the future. They will learn how to become effective members of their chapters for years to come so they can lead too.

Other Members- The Sneetches?

Ciera Ballmer and Sarah Van Asten

FFA members, not in a chapter officer position, will discover their importance and leadership potential within the FFA. They will explore Dr. Seuss’s story, The Sneetches, and explore the significance of the star-bellied Sneetches verses the Sneetches without starred-bellies.

5:20 p.m. (5:35 p.m.) – 5:55 p.m. (6:10 p.m.) Round II Workshops

No Eggs and Ham

Rylee Black

Green eggs and ham aren't your favorite? Well, they're better than none! Let's get pumped to find ways to become a part of the change to end hunger. With the help of Hunger Heroes, we will share ideas that will help us live to serve and make sure everyone gets some eggs and ham.

How The Chapter Stole Activities!

Caleb Green

In this workshop, members will evaluate the activities they do at the local level. They will also look at new opportunities for their chapter to take hold of. Come share ideas and take home some great activities for your members, school and community.

FFA I Am

Laura Munger

In this workshop, we will be discovering our purpose as FFA members by learning about the FFA Mission and Vision. Come with an open mind as we explore ways to fulfill the mission and vision and find opportunities to apply them in our FFA chapter!

SAE: What Do You See

Kari Fischer

Come one and all to see what an SAE can do for you! In this workshop, we'll dive into the six different areas where an SAE can fit just right for members. See real life examples that students can participate in. Students that attend will become more informed of the various components of an SAE and how they work.

FFA's ABCs

Ciera Ballmer

Discover how to incorporate FFA's ABCs: Agriculture, Being specific, and Creativity into effective written communication. After this workshop, you'll be ready to be a writer just like Dr. Seuss!

We Speak for the Trees...

Hannah Taylor

... and all the other Ag Issues too! Communicating with values-based messages is even more important as consumers become increasingly more concerned about issues in agriculture. Learn how to recognize and respond to values and concerns of consumers and use a magic formula when advocating for agriculture.

98 and ¾% Guaranteed

Ashley Zimmerman

Will you succeed? You will indeed! 98 and ¾% guaranteed! One way to succeed is becoming a better communicator! Whether you are starting in FFA as a seventh grader or entering your senior year, there is a speaking event you can participate in! These speaking contests will also provide you with skills that are valuable for your future and ensure that you will be successful 98 and ¾% of the time!

Oh, The Places You will Ag-xplor!

Dani Angotti

In this fun, interactive workshop, we will learn all about the new career exploring website brought to us by the National FFA and Discovery Education. AgExplorer.com. This workshop will teach us about the variety of agriculture careers available to us.

The Red and White Hat

Sarah Van Asten

We all know the beloved, "Cat in the Hat" from our friend, Dr. Seuss. As the red and white hat is a symbol of Seussville, the FFA emblem is a symbol of the National FFA Organization. Through this interactive workshop, we will explore the symbols of the emblem along with how each applies to our own lives

I Can Talk With my Mouth Shut

Travis Cadman

Come on in and learn how you can tell your FFA story without saying a word. Learn to communicate on social media and show how much fun FFA is!

Meet your Sectional FFA State Officer (Only Offered during Third Round for Chapter Presidents)

Chapter presidents will meet with their sectional State FFA Officer to learn about activities and key topics for the coming year. They will also discuss the National Convention Delegate issues. The state officer will be able to get to know the chapter presidents in their section and provide a better avenue for communicating with local chapters.
